

Worry and experience of harm from everyday risks

People in Latvia are most worried about road and traffic accidents (73%) and violent crime (61%) causing them serious harm, the two highest levels of concern among the ten risks asked about. Across all ten, worry in Latvia runs lower than the global average. Concern far outstrips lived experience, however: while 73% worry about road and traffic accidents, only 6% have actually been harmed by it in the past two years. The harm most commonly experienced in Latvia is severe weather events (9%). The gap between worry and experience is widest for road and traffic accidents, where 73% are worried but 6% have actually been affected.

Top of mind risk to safety

Asked to name the single greatest risk to their daily safety, people in Latvia most often point to war or terrorism (27%), above the global figure of 3%. The economy and personal finances ranks second (15%), followed by health problems (13%).

Risks which ranked below 2% of the global average are aggregated into this 'Other risks' category.
