

Worry and experience of harm from everyday risks

People in Moldova are most worried about prolonged severe weather (91%) and road and traffic accidents (80%) causing them serious harm, the two highest levels of concern among the ten risks asked about. Across all ten, worry in Moldova runs higher than the global average. Concern far outstrips lived experience, however: while 91% worry about prolonged severe weather, only 26% have actually been harmed by it in the past two years. The harm most commonly experienced in Moldova is prolonged severe weather (26%). The gap between worry and experience is widest for road and traffic accidents, where 80% are worried but 6% have actually been affected.

Top of mind risk to safety

Asked to name the single greatest risk to their daily safety, people in Moldova most often point to health problems (30%), above the global figure of 13%. War or terrorism ranks second (23%), followed by the economy and personal finances (11%).

Risks which ranked below 2% of the global average are aggregated into this 'Other risks' category.
